Personal Skills

- I have very good communication skills which have been improved and tested through my work experience, jobs and projects. Presentations and group work have also developed these skills. Working with the public and customers allowed me to gain confidence and ability to speak to new people clearly and efficiently.
- I can overcome problems quite easily and follow instructions well which has been proved by the type of occupations and work experience that I have obtained recently.
- I am good at working within a team environment; this is represented through the various productions and work placements that I have been involved in.
- I am also good at using my own initiative and problem solving when needed.
- Administration is one of my strongest skills, I have gained a lot of experience with previous employment in this particular area.
